CHALLENGE FOR DEBATE.

HELENA, Ky., Sept. 13th, 1892.
Hon. Charles B. Payne, Chairman Democratic District Committee—Dear Sir: In conformity with the established usages of political parties holding different views, and in obedience to the demand of public opinion to have discussed the merits of our respective platforms, I therefore propose a joint discussion between Hon. R. H. Yantis, People's Party candidate for Congress, and Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, Democratic candidate, to be held at such time and place as may hereafter be agreed upon by us. Should this challenge meet the approval of your honorable committee, I will confer with you at the Central Hotel, Maysville, Ky., at any stated time you may suggest in the near future to complete arrangements. Very truly yours,
WILLIAM LUTTRELL,
Chairman P. P. District Committee.

MR. OLIVET.

Mrs. A. S. Rice is visiting her mother in Georgetown.
Our town continues to improve and there are not enough houses in town to supply the demand.

C. B. Morford, editor of The Advance, will open a large furniture store here about September 15th.

Clarence Stanton of Maysville, representing a Life Insurance Company, was in Mt. Olivet last week.

J. W. Riley, the teacher of bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting in the Academy has moved to Mt. Olivet.

The Mt. Olivet Academy which opened August 29th is flourishing and growing daily. This school is destined to become one of the first of its grade in the state.

G. W. Adair of Maysville lectured at the Courthouse Thursday night. Subject, "The Golden Key of Life." A fair sized audience greeted Mr. Adair and all seemed pleased and instructed.

The First Annual Mt. Olivet Fair will be held at the Driving Association grounds on the 23d, 24th and 25th inst. The purses and special premiums are liberal, and the weather being favorable, this new acquisition to Kentucky fairs will be a success.

On the evening of the 23d inst. an interesting entertainment will be given at the Courthouse under the auspices of the Academy, the program to consist of music, vocal and instrumental, readings, recitations, and addresses, thus giving the fair visitors a pleasant place to spend an evening.

MORANBURG.

W. R. Lloyd and family spent the day with relatives on Tuckahoe Sunday.

Miss Maud McCue is home again after a two weeks' visit with relatives at Tuckahoe.

Elisha Moran of the Bottom spent the day Sunday with relatives near Camp Kenton.

W. G. Wells has about the best corn in the neighborhood. He believes in early planting.

Kelly Buchanan and family of the Bottom visited the family of Louis Simpson last Sunday.

Ellis Downing is dangerously ill at his home near Camp Kenton. He has been in bad health the past year.

The Stone Church is without a Pastor at this time, but don't forget the Prayer-meeting every Wednesday night.

It's our J. B. Melvin who was appointed Sheriff of the election in our neighboring precinct. Jim will keep things level.

The two Sunday-schools here seem to be running down. This ought not to be so in a thickly settled community like this.

W. T. Marsh spent Sunday with relatives on Jersey Ridge. The writer supervised the Sunday-school in his absence.

If there is any hungry people in Maysville, we will try and fill 'em up now in a few days with late roasting ears and old-fashioned cornfield beans.

Tom Worfield, colored, danced to the tune of "22 and costs in Squire Pickett's court last Saturday evening for talking too much out of his mouth.

Pat McCue, wife and daughter, Miss Kate of Jersey Ridge visited the family of Pat Osborne last Sunday. Mr. Osborne is still in a critical condition.

Between twenty and thirty head of cattle, mostly milk cows, tramp up and down the creek from morning till night in search of a little grass, which is getting mighty short.

John Higgins is able to be out again and has rebuilt his wife fence which was cut to pieces one night recently by some unknown person or persons. John says he will sleep with one eye open hereafter.

Emmit Turner has shipped his last year's crop of tobacco to Cincinnati. Part of the crop has been disposed of for about 8 cents per pound. He still holds the best hogheads, which he thinks will bring 17 cents. He has ten acres of growing tobacco that is hard to beat in this section. Mr. Turner and W. L. Moran talk of going into the poultry business next year.

We understand that the County Court has granted license to parties to sell beer at Moranburg and within a few feet of the Postoffice. We believe the majority of votes in a radius of a mile of the place were against license, yet they were granted by Squire Grant, acting County Judge, last Saturday. Well, the people at this end of the string have two churches, the schoolhouse, blacksmith shop and steam gristmill. Now if Uncle Sam will give us the Postoffice, which he surely will, we won't have to drink the beer. We can let it alone.

BEULICK SPRINGS.

Monday was County Court Day at Carlisle.

A great many visitors were at the Licks Sunday.

Elder Degman and Walter Durham made a visit to Sardinia Sunday.

David Manley is holding a meeting at Bald Hill. He baptized five converts here Sunday.

Tremendous crowds are attending the protracted meetings at the Christian Church at this place.

Douglas Shirley, brother of Louis A. Shirley, is here spending a week with James Hunter and wife.

Rev. Willis wound up his work at this place Sunday by preaching the funeral of Mrs. Elijah Shumaker.

Hughes & Ballenger are prizing some very fine tobacco here. They are fine gentlemen and are doing a good business.

The "Trade Epitaph" of J. H. Hunter & Co. is doing a magnificent business this summer, and the fall trade is very flattering.
A respectable young lady of this neighborhood accepted an invitation to be driven home from church on last Sunday night by a young man under the influence of whiskey. On their way the horse ran off and threw the lady out injuring her very badly. The horse and buggy are both ruined and the young man is ready to offer his services to the next giddy head who wants a beau.
